

ARTS AND CRAFTS IN A SMALL CHURCH 1-4pm each Sunday ST. MARGARET'S CHURCH THORPE MARKET NR11 8AJ

Sundays 5 and 19 February Gillian Eustace

Gillian is a Norfolk artist inspired by the local landscapes, broadland and the coastal views, resulting in watercolour, pen and wash and acrylic paintings and scenic and nostalgic cards. Her work is widely collected from Auckland, New Zealand to the United States. She looks forward to welcoming you on 5th and 19th of February.

Sundays 12 and 26 February Rosalie Osborne Gibb

Local artist Rosalie's art reflects her love of the coast and countryside, from sand, surf, big Norfolk skies and sunsets to flora, fauna, iconic structures, boats and trains. Rosalie's art, photos and cards have sold privately and through galleries and exhibitions including The Guildhall in London, with paintings and photographs finding their way around the UK, Europe, New Zealand, South Africa, Canada and America.

Scrolled log basket with kindling tray

Sunday 26 February Nick Woolston

Nick is a highly experienced coded welder with over 25 years knowledge of fabricating and welding. Nick has an eye for detail and prides himself on delivering a quality service at a reasonable price, offering a complete bespoke service to suit your needs from design through to installation, from the smallest candle holder to gates, fencing and garden arches.

Very pretty warm church surrounded by snowdrops and aconites.
Teas, delicious homemade cakes, used books, prints, cards, gifts.